

SEMI PRIVATE ENTERTAINING

Boxwood Estate Winery Semi Private Event Packages

Event Overview

A Rare Opportunity Within a Working Winery

Boxwood Estate Winery is first and foremost a working winery—designed with intention, precision, and respect for the craft of winemaking. Access to semi private events within this environment is intentionally limited, offering guests the rare opportunity to gather within spaces that are typically dedicated to production and aging.

The estate was designed by renowned architect Hugh Newell Jacobsen and is owned by John Kent Cooke reflecting a shared vision for timeless architecture, thoughtful design, and an uncompromising commitment to quality.

About Us

Estate-Grown, Bordeaux-Inspired Wines

All wines served at Boxwood Estate Winery are 100% estate-grown and produced on property, with a focus on Bordeaux-style blends that reflect the character of our Middleburg terroir. From vineyard to cellar, every wine is crafted with intention, precision, and respect for place offering guests a true estate wine experience..
